Honors College Admission Application

In the Honors College, students experience a supportive, encouraging environment where they can express themselves freely and explore a wide range of disciplines. Dedicated faculty and staff, who are professionals in many fields, work alongside students throughout their college journey and join in celebrating student achievements. We provide diverse spaces to learn without limitations, create community, explore creativity, and bring a lively curiosity to bear on big questions about the world. This application requests brief written responses related to why you want to join the Honors College, particularly related to our themes of Community, Creativity, and Curiosity. Please allow yourself enough time to complete this application before you begin.

Below are three prompts related to the Honors College themes of Community, Creativity, and Curiosity. Please respond to two or more of the following prompts for a complete application. Your responses will help us get to know you and understand how the Honors College fits into your academic goals. Your responses may also be shared anonymously with Honors College faculty for internal reflection and course planning.

Your admission application will be rejected if you submit this form without responding to at least two of the prompts

Community: With small classes, a Living Learning Community, many activities, dedicated faculty and staff, student organizations, and a peer mentoring program, the Honors College creates many opportunities for developing a community within the larger university. What about the Honors College community most excites you? (1500 characters)

Creativity: The Honors College values and encourages students to explore and express their creativity. What role does creativity play in your life? Your response can be a written response, an example of how you express your creativity, or both. If you would like to share an example of your creativity, it can be in any format that makes sense for you including, but not limited to, research projects, data visualization, coding, a video, essay, poem, art piece, image, or recording (1500 characters)

If you choose an alternate format, please place the link where we can access your work. For example, a YouTube page or a personal website

Curiosity: The Honors College is a space for students to explore their curiosity about the world around them, to get outside of their comfort zones, and to challenge themselves. Rather than offer Honors sections of classes that already exist on campus, we offer unique interdisciplinary courses taught by faculty from a wide range of academic disciplines for students from different majors from across campus. What topics/issues/research do you want to explore through the Honors College and why? (1500 characters)

What interests you most about being part of the Honors College at UNM? What do you hope to get out of your experience as a student in the Honors College? (1500 characters)

Please list any Awards, Honors, or Leadership Activities that you would like to share with us.
